

FAMILY Book CLUBS

Coming to a public library near you for military and civilian families!

Read Together.
Discuss Books.
Make Friends.

START (Serving, Thriving, and Reading Together) is a unique humanities-based and family-focused program building community among military and civilian families. Six weekly storytelling, reading, and discussion sessions featuring award-winning children's books are led by professional storytellers and storylovers. The program is free for participants.

Families with children ages 6 to 12 will enjoy discussing children's stories about such ideas as family, courage, and community.

By participating your family will...

- Make new friends in the community
- Enjoy reading and sharing ideas together
- Learn more about community and library resources
- Plant the seeds for future academic success

Additional highlights include:

- Kid-friendly dinners
- Awesome picture books to read each week
- Door prizes
- Additional book gifts to build your family library

Family Book Clubs are coming to the following communities: Jacksonville, FL, San Diego, CA, Washington, DC, Norfolk/Va Beach, VA, New York City, NY

This initiative, part of the Blue Star Books program, is a collaborative effort of The National Endowment for the Humanities and Blue Star Families with support from PRIME TIME, Inc. Additional support has been provided by the following: Disney, Military Child Education Coalition, The Florida Humanities Council, Jacksonville Public Libraries, First Command, and others.
