

Dr. Richardson joins us from the VA North Texas Health Care System, where she served as the Chief of Psychology, since 2016. Dr. Richardson joined the VA in 2010, in that time she has held several leadership positions to include the Clinical Director for the Gold Team as well as the Assistant Chief of Psychology.

Dr. Richardson served in the United States Navy from 2006-2010. She deployed with the Marines, attached to Regimental Combat Team 1, First Marine Division, in in 2008, in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. Upon her return, Dr. Richardson directed and supervised the mental health care of the Marines and Sailors at Wounded Warrior Battalion – West.

Dr. Richardson earned a Behavioral Science degree from Glenville State College, a Master of Science and a Doctorate in Clinical Psychology from the Florida School of Professional Psychology.